

Twenty of the most distinguished participants in Notre Dame's international conference on "The Theological Issues of Vatican II" were awarded honorary doctorates by the University at a special convocation March 23rd. The degrees were conferred by Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh, C.S.C., Notre Dame president.

(Left to right)

First row:

Rev. Henri de Lubac, S. J., Lyons, France
Bishop Carlo Colombo, Varese, Italy
Rabbi Abraham J. Heschel, Jewish Theological Seminary, New York, N. Y.
Father Hesburgh
Dr. Paul S. Minear, Yale University, New Haven, Conn.
Abbot Christopher Butler, O. S. B., Downside Abbey, Bath, England
Rt. Rev. Georges Florovsky, Princeton University, Princeton, N. J.

Second Row:

Rev. John Meyendorff, St. Vladimir's Orthodox Seminary, Tuckahoe, N. Y.
Rev. Karl Rahner, S. J., Munich, Germany
Dr. Albert Outler, Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Tex.
Rev. Yves Congar, O. P., Strasbourg, France
Dr. Joseph Sittler, University of Chicago
Canon Charles Moeller, University of Louvain, Belgium
Abbe Francois Houtart, University of Louvain, Belgium

Third row:

Rt. Rev. Msgr. Jorge Medina Estevez, Santiago, Chile
Dr. George A. Lindbeck, Yale University, New Haven, Conn.
Rev. Bernard Haring, C. SS. R., Goettingen, Germany
Rev. Barnabas Ahern, C. P., Louisville, Ky.
Rt. Rev. Msgr. Luigi Ligutti, Vatican City
Rev. Walter Burghardt, S. J., Woodstock, Md.
Rev. Roberto Tucci, S. J., Rome, Italy